

BLUE LINES FLY FISHING

FLY FISHING CONCIERGE
CURATING BESPOKE EXPERIENCES
FOR THE DISCERNING ANGLER

BLUELINESFLYFISHING.COM

With the Appalachian Mountains as our anchor, BlueLines Fly Fishing will escort you on a world-class fly fishing adventure from the southern Blue Ridge up to Katahdin and beyond. We have cultivated a network of Guides and elegant boutique Inns and Lodges each distinguished by their commitment to the Guest Experience and proximity to the legendary trout and salmon waters of the East so not only can we position you to deceive a trophy or a native brookie but we can help you find those transformational moments of personal discovery where you realize that it's not fish that you're fishing for...

BlueLines Fly Fishing directly provides or arranges for everything required by avid or beginning anglers, Guides and Outfitters, Fishing Clubs, Families, Men's Groups, Women's Groups, Corporate Groups and Health and Wellness Coaches and their Groups or anyone motivated by camaraderie, tranquility, an unexpected adventure or discovery, Pleasure in the Pathless Wood, or, as John Buchan wrote, "a perpetual series of occasions for hope". Let us know what you need, beyond the expected, and you will be amazed at what you can find here so close to home.
